Complete Subjects and Predicates: Homework

Fresh sentences, none of them from the lesson. Draw the line, name the half, then write your own.

Part A — Place the line

____ / 6

Draw one straight line down between the complete subject and the complete predicate.

1. The shortstop in the away uniform dropped an easy catch.
2. My little sister keeps the scorebook every Saturday.
3. Both umpires walked off the field together.
4. A long line at the snack stand moved slowly.
5. The coach's whistle ended the practice early.
6. Everyone on the bench stood up for the last out.

Part B — Name the half

____ / 5

One half of each sentence is underlined. Circle whether it is the complete subject or the complete predicate.

1. The tallest player on our team pitched the last inning.
   The underlined half is the complete subject or complete predicate
2. My grandfather watched the whole game from his truck.
   The underlined half is the complete subject or complete predicate
3. A stray dog wandered across the outfield.
   The underlined half is the complete subject or complete predicate
4. The scoreboard behind the fence stopped working.
   The underlined half is the complete subject or complete predicate
5. Two rows of parents cheered for every single hit.
   The underlined half is the complete subject or complete predicate

Part C — Write your own

_____ / 2

Write a sentence of your own on the first line, then write its complete subject and complete predicate underneath.

1. A sentence of your own _____

Complete subject _____

2. The same sentence again _____

Complete predicate _____

Total _____ / 13

Answer key

Part A — the line goes where the bar is.

1. The shortstop in the away uniform | dropped an easy catch.
2. My little sister | keeps the scorebook every Saturday.
3. Both umpires | walked off the field together.
4. A long line at the snack stand | moved slowly.
5. The coach's whistle | ended the practice early.
6. Everyone on the bench | stood up for the last out.

Part B

1. complete subject
2. complete predicate
3. complete predicate
4. complete subject
5. complete subject

Part C — answers vary. Look for a complete subject that keeps every word telling you WHICH one, and a complete predicate that starts at the verb and runs to the end. A subject cut short, The man where the sentence says The man behind the paint counter, is the mistake to watch for.

Say the sentence out loud. Where you pause is usually where the line goes.
